

Dear friends,

We here at Pariyatti want to start off this newsletter with a heartfelt thank you! We wrapped up the 2023 year-end fundraising campaign with a lot of gratitude.

All donations via bank transfer, Paypal, credit card, and bank check-received since our last campaign update—have been counted. All donations together totalled an amount of $98,509.89, which means we almost attained our goal of $100,000!

We would like to acknowledge all our supporters for their generosity, and emphasize that we will make sure to use this dāra wisely. We never stop looking for ways to improve our efficiency while we continue to make available Dhamma resources to people and organizations around the world.

We look forward to serving you again throughout 2024.

May you all experience peace and harmony, and may more and more people find inspiration to walk on the path!

Recent Release in Softcover & Free PDF

Initially planned as a simple handout of selected suttas for participants in a Pāli workshop, Exploring the Sacred, Ancient Path in the Original Words of the Buddha turned into an online Pāli learning program with vocabulary tools, introductions, and audio for each lesson. The original guiding principle was to collect suttas of special value to Vipassana meditators, who may be interested in reading the texts that they heard in the discourses during their meditation retreats in the tradition of S.N. Goenka.

The book represents a collection of Pāli lessons focused on such suttas with custom glossaries, detailed footnotes as well as a side-by-side Pāli and English presentation to help students quickly understand and become inspired by some of the most valuable of the Buddha's teachings. The current release is part one; we expect another two or three parts to be released over time.

Upcoming 20-day Residential Pāli Workshop

 In this 20-day residential Pāli workshop, following a basic introduction to Pāli grammar and pronunciation, participants will spend most of their time reading, reciting, and understanding the suttas and the Pāli language. The goal of this longer workshop is to help participants gain a good enough grasp of the Pāli language to be able to experience the benefits from exploring the Buddha's words in its original language. Pāli resources and aids for future individual learning will be provided so that if they wish, participants will be able to continue their Pāli studies after the workshop. The teacher for this course is Mor Ifrah.

September 7-28, 2024

Temecula, California, USA

Just like the Vipassana courses in our tradition, this Pāli workshop is free of charge; costs are met by donations of former participants, donations to the Pāli Workshop Fund.

Goenkaji endorsed Pāli workshops as they help meditators develop inspiration and understanding of the theoretical aspect of Dhamma. Workshops cannot take place at a Vipassana center, as centers are dedicated to the practice of Vipassana only; the off-center location for this course is located in the hills of Temecula, California, providing a peaceful atmosphere in beautiful surroundings.

Exploring the Path

The revisions of sub-chapters 1.3, 1.4 of the online Pāli course Exploring the Path (ETP) were made available in 2023, as well as the revision of the entire Chapter 2. Lesson 1.4, Tena me samanā piyā—‘That is why the Samanās are Dear to me!’, concluded the revision of the entire Chapter 1, So Fortunate who Encounters a Path.

As part of the revision of Chapter 3, Itthiyā vā purisena vā gahatthena vā pabbajitena vā sāmaññena vā brahmaññena—‘A Path which is the Same for One and All’, a whole new lesson was added: Lesson 2.1.15 Phussattheragathā—‘2500 Years Are Over! The Clock of Vipassana Has Struck! Make Use of This Rare Opportunity’!

ETP Chapter 3 is being revised as well, and in that light Lesson 3.1.0 ‘Dhammānūsati—‘The Universal Dhamma, a Path for One and All, so Well Explained,’ was newly added in 2023. It highlights how proper reflection and recollection on the qualities of the Dhamma can support one’s efforts.

Lessons 3.10.6 and 3.10.7, on the Abhidhamma (Introduction & Terminology and the Classification of the Universe) were new too, as background information for the sub-chapter 3.10 (to be completed in due time), on with notes on the Paṭiccasamuppāda and the Tikaṭṭhā-chantings of the S.N. Goenka Vipassana courses.
